

VERDES
a Center 333
The Kings
6c
74c
$1.44
9c
9c
4c
109
24
9c
9c
es
4c
ish.
M-L 8c
est
er ish 9c
le ules
10
9c
nuous
our ac
9c
9c
4c
4c
9c
6c
8c
4c

Mothers of Twins Club Announces

Fashion Extravaganza To Aid Children

"Twin Flights in Fashion" is the theme of the annual spring fashion show and dinner presented by the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club at the Los Verdes Country Club on Palos Verdes Peninsula on Tuesday, March 25, at 7 p.m.

Two philanthropies have been chosen to benefit from the proceeds from the show, the South Bay Child Guidance Clinic and the Children's Park in Ensenada.

The Child Guidance Clinic works with emotionally disturbed school age children and two recent surveys have disclosed that 10 per cent of the school children are emotionally disturbed and severe enough to demand psychiatric care. The children are recommended by the school district doctor and parents are charged according to their ability to pay. To meet the important responsibility of developing productive citizens, the Twin Mothers are planning to donate a substantial sum.

The Mothers Club also hopes to donate equipment for the new Children's Park in Ensenada. This park is a sister city project of Redondo Beach. Ensenada furnishes the land, fence, restrooms, landscaping, and maintenance. The women's division of the sister city project is furnishing the playground equipment.

Mrs. Sydney Smith, president of the Mothers of Twins Club, has chosen Mrs. Warren Gray of Lawndale and Mrs. Tom Leonard of Harbor City as general co-chairmen. Assisting will be Mmes. Cleve Kimmel, Torrance, decorations; Leroy Cramer, Torrance, and Charles Reddick, Redondo Beach, fashion coordinators; Ronald Cross, Lomita, door prizes; John Rand, Torrance, table favors; Jerry Steinbrecher, Torrance, hat prizes; Carl Sorenson, Torrance, publicity; William Brodsley, San Pedro, hostesses; and Layton Carr, Palos Verdes Peninsula, entertainment.

Grand prizes for the evening will be cash awards and during the fashion parade, door prizes will be given.

Clothes from a San Pedro children's shop will be modeled by 11 sets of twins, Mark and Miles Kan, 13 months; Rudy and Tory Torres, 2, Lisa and Lori Lewis, 3; Jim and Jeff Rand, 3; Deanna and Leanna Evans, 3; Robin and Renee Reddick, 3; Paul and Mark Leonard, 6; Donnie and Dennis Eldridge, 7; Linda and Tom Steinbrecher, 8; Karey and Kim Cramer, 9; and Wayne and Wade Mitchell, 1 month.

Modeling women's fashions will be Mmes. Lonnie Cadis, El Segundo; Ronald Cross, Lomita; Howard DeCastro, James Ekas, Robert Evans, Dave Fosmire, Carl Sorenson, Thomas Webb, Torrance; Victor Feld, Hawthorne; and Robert Wittrig, Lakewood. The models will also be parading new fashions in wigs.

Fathers of twins modeling clothing from a Rolling Hills Plaza shop will be Carl Sorenson, Bill Strong, and Thomas Webb. Teenage twins modeling are Kathy and Neal Campbell and Gregg and Geoff DeCastro.

Highlighting the fashion revue will be the appearance of 8-month-old triplets, Joseph, Gloria and Beatrice Vivieros, children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vivieros of San Pedro.

The public is invited to attend the benefit and may secure tickets by calling Mrs. Steve Sailors, Redondo Beach.

Thinking Double All The Way

It's two of everything for the members of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club who chose "Twin Flight Into Fashion" for their spring benefit March 25 at Los Verdes Country Club. Carrying out their theme, Mmes. Warren Gray, left, and Mrs. Lon Cadis, right, hold posters of twin planes and Mrs. Jerry Steinbrecher, center, wears the "money hat" to be given as a door prize. Mrs. Steve Sailors of Redondo Beach may be called for tickets. (Press-Herald photo)

Sprinkling of Spring

A Fashion Brunch is in store for members of the Torrance Woman's Club and their guests on Wednesday morning, March 26, at 9:30 a.m. at the May Company South Bay Tea Room.

Mrs. F. P. Adams, chairman of the fashion event, is being assisted by Mrs. George Messinger. Karen Terry of the May Co. will be fashion coordinator for the show. A hot brunch will be served and several door prizes will be awarded.

This will be the Woman's Club final ways and means project for the year. Proceeds will go to the scholarship fund and other philanthropies supported by the club.

Tickets may be secured by contacting Mrs. F. P. Adams, Mrs. George Messinger, or Mrs. Robert Winship, president of the Woman's Club.

In A Spring Setting

Anticipating the Torrance Woman's Club Fashion Show when a parade of spring and summer new fashions will be displayed two club members, Mmes. James Burchett, remembrance chairman, and Mrs. Morton E. Diener, publicity chairman, enjoy a fashion magazine under a floral arbor. Proceeds from the upcoming show will be used for club philanthropies. (Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

March 19, 1969

B-1

It Must Be Exciting

The procedure for the Miss Torrance Pageant proves almost "too much" for Mrs. Charles Dishon, a Jaycette hostess, who misses her mark as she serves coffee to Mrs. Phil Sheaffer, another Jaycette, with two contestants, Etta Crumiford, left, and Ruth Watson, right. The group is talking over the informal coffee planned by the Jaycettes for March 20 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gayle Battelle, 2635 230th Pl. Rules for the contest will be discussed with contestants and their mothers. Chairmen for the informal coffee are Mmes. Hal Lindborg and James Clauson. (Press-Herald Photo)

Scandinavian Specialties On the Menu

A bit of Scandinavia will move into Nativity Annex, next door to Torrance Memorial Hospital, when the Hospital Auxiliary stages a benefit Smorgasbord on Sunday, March 23, from 2 to 6 p. m. Viking ships, filled with flowers, will decorate the tables and a menu of sumptuous Scandinavian foods will be served. The Smorgasbord is a benefit to aid the Auxiliary with its $100,000 pledge to the new hospital, now under construction. In a final planning session are, from left, Mmes. N. F. Jamieson, George B. Jungkind, Ernest W. Mauk and R. A. Bingham admiring a Viking ship centerpiece while Mrs. John Popovich and Mrs. Sheridan Thorup, hospital dietitian, study favorite Smorgasbord recipes. Others assisting are Mmes. Jo Helphand, Laurence Brown, Frank Cooper and Eva McGraw. Tickets will not be sold at the door. Tickets must be reserved with Mrs. Ernest Mauk, ticket chairman. (Press-Herald photo)

Needlework Unit Plans Benefit Theater Party

A gala Benefit Theater Party is planned by the Portuguese Bend unit of the Peninsula Volunteers of the Needlework Guild of America.

Featured will be a performance of "The Owl and the Pussycat," a sophisticated, adult comedy starring Mrs. Jo Lashman and Duke Schneider. The setting is the Chapel Theater, Lomita, Thursday evening, March 20, at 8:30 p.m.

Proceeds from the evening will be used to promote the assistance of the Needlework Guild, in providing new clothing and household linen to 13 local schools, hospitals, institutions and agencies.

Coffee and refreshments will be served gratis. Tickets may be purchased the night of the performance, at the theater, or by calling Mrs. Boynton Hays.